Presentation School Foundation to Make Major Announcement on Ownership and Future Use of the Presentation School Building

Mayor Menino and Cardinal O'Malley to Attend

WHO: Mayor Thomas M. Menino, Cardinal Seán P. O'Malley, Representatives of Presentation School Foundation and community supporters

WHERE: Oak Square (Tremont and Washington Sts.), Brighton, MA

WHEN: 3:30 p.m. (Rain or shine, tent provided), Friday, October 12th

WHAT: Leaders and members of Presentation School Foundation will make major announcement regarding the ownership and future use of the Our Lady of Presentation grammar school building. The event, a community celebration, will also include Boston Mayor Thomas M. Menino and Cardinal Seán P. O'Malley.

The Presentation School Foundation entered into negotiations with the Archdiocese in the Fall of 2005 to acquire the building to create a community center focused on providing educational services. In October 2006, the Archdiocese agreed to sell the building to the community group for $1 million, which was half of the Presentation School Foundation's formal offer.

The Presentation School Foundation is a community based non-profit organization formed to support education in Allston-Brighton in order to maintain and strengthen a stable and family-based community. The Foundation has built community partnerships within the Allston-Brighton neighborhood to expand educational opportunities and programs in support of local families. Created in 2004, the Foundation has developed a proposal for the creation of an Oak Square Community Campus, which includes the Presentation School property, the Oak Square YMCA, and the Faneuil Branch of the Boston Public Library.
